A missionary told us that the Communists in China had developed a powerful way to reach the multitudes.

Years ago their agents watched our children spend hours reading comic books.

The communists spent millions of dollars printing their propaganda in a cartoon format.

The results were extremely successful.

Could illustrated Gospel tracts be equally successful in spreading God's Word?

Yes... and beyond all expectations

People find them IRRESISTIBLE!

